Expense Report:

Cash & Checks for meals at Saints on Second, Income comes close to expenses for meals and room rental.

Net income for peanuts appears to be close to $3600 Peanuts.

$350 sent to Chanel One for Children's food Backpacks. A nice thank you note was received from them this week.

Dues income has been very good for next year. It appears that only 3 members have not paid to date. The new fiscal yeas started Oct. 1

KIWANIS CLUB OF ROCHESTER www.kiwanisroch.org

Successful Bounce Project

Another year with a successful emergency response progam. Here we see members and spouse who showed up to help. Left to Right: Al Lun, Del Lawson, Linda Hull, Mary Tompkins, Colleen Maddox, Austin Jorgenson and Kathy Lawson. Some of the Key Club joined us in response to the need for many people to make it a productive and learning experience. We add our thanks to that of the community.

Bonnie Schultz

continues to align the reading programs for this year. I don't take good notes on some of these things, so maybe Bonnie will write up something for the next issue of the 'Downtowner.' This is an important and fun project that our club gets involved in.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time.  As editor of the 'Downtowner', I have asked, periodically, for members to peruse the roster for any needed changes, additions, corrections. Alas, No one ever responds except my faithful Colleen. Recently she handed me several things that needed changing. I've done that and again plead for all to go over the roster. I then will send it back to Colleen for the final word. I tease her, but really appreciate that she will take the time to do it.

Cindy Kerr and Austin Jorgenson are working to get the Pizza Ranch back on our fund raising schedule. When they get some dates they will let us know.

In a brainstorming session, Austin has suggested that we consider a "social night" once a month. Just what that might involve, he didn't say.

Perhaps someplace to eat, spouses invited, whatever. We should discuss it more and see if there is any interest.

Mary and Linda, our co-presidents this year, have our 'Adopt a Family' project in mind and have been getting the $400 allotted last year, in time for the Christmas Season. They will keep us up to speed on their progress.

Time for Change

Del Lawson and Bob McClocklin have announced that they want to be relieved as chairpersons of their major fund raising projects.

Bob McClocklin (and wife Suzie) have headed up the Peanut Drive every fall for perhaps 17years more or less. Bob, like Del, will assist the new chairperson this year before walking away from the responsibility thereafter. Del (and wife Kathy) may have done the Pancake Breakfast for the same number years as Bob did peanuts. He wants the same break away that Bob wants. These are requests that are more than fair. The trouble with doing a great job is that we assume you will do it forever, right?

Please someone step up and learn the project from the 'Masters' and be ready to take a turn at it. These are the big fund raising projects that our club has. We need to keep it up. This is how we get the funds for college scholarships and other selected local programs that we choose to support.

THANKS TO BOB AND DEL FOR ALL THEIR SERVICE TO THIS CLUB. YOU ARE APPRECIATED!

(Charlie Graham has been a major part of these fund raisers, and we always want to express our special thanks to him. Hopefully, we don't need to replace him in the foreseeable future!)

Colleen M. is organizing things for the Hiawatha Festival of Trees. She will be looking for people to man the telephones and later to deliver the ornaments as we have done in the past. Everyone needs to pitch in doing something. Remember the old adage, 'Many hands make light work.'

Tierre Webster

(exec. Dir. Of Next Chapter Ministries)

Our speaker this week was T. Webster as indicated under his picture. He was recently featured on the cover of Rochester Magazine. He is a passionate speaker. He shared some of his background which was a little shady and then how he finally got himself straightened out, got an education and now guides the Next Chapter Ministries, a local non-profit.

I quote their Vision: To change the culture of crime in Rochester and Olmsted County.

Mission: To build lasting relationships with people impacted by crime, restoring them to God, family & community with the Gospel of God.

You can go to their website info@NextChapterRochester.org

This is a 'funny' sent to me by Irv. I don't if you can open it, but try. It is worth it.
